

September 2010 Draft

Reviewed by UGC September & October 2010

Revised that inform decision making and the development of procedures throughout the University. May include policies that are required of the University by way of federal legislation or other mandates.

- Govern institutional procedures
- Widespread application: guides work of the campus as a whole
- Changes less frequently, and then only through formal policy review process (University Governance Council review). Approval rests with President's Cabinet and/or the University President.
- Expressed in broad terms

Inter divisional Policies: guidelines that inform practices and procedures created by a be vetted or approved through f University policy review process

- Changes at discretion of the division head, with consultation as needed

Divisional Policies: the general guidelines that inform decision making and the development of procedures within a specific division of the University. Student conduct policies are divisional policies within Student Life. Academic policies are divisional policies within Academic Affairs.

- Govern divisional procedures or processes
- Has application only within the division
- Changes less frequently, and then only through the division's

September 2010 Draft